Fall Distinguished Lecture 2010

Adrian Bailey, Ph.D.

Dean, Social Sciences at the Hong Kong Baptist University, Hong Kong

“Labor Migration, Recession, and Transnationalization: Notes from Europe”

December 9 6:00 p.m.
104 Thomas Building

Adrian Bailey has research interests in transnational migration and the implications of this mobility for remittances and for families and social networks. He has worked both in the US (Dartmouth College) and the UK (University of Leeds) and currently works in Hong Kong. His current research examines the strategies of cross border migrants in southern China.
